

It is located next to the main lobby of Olympia building to provide showroom space for all new computers. The customers will have a hand-on experience with the computers and the accessories by themselves or with the help of a company technician. It also serves as a sale-service space for other office supply products.

The customers will have a hand-on experience with the computers and the accessories...

INTERIOR