

This development includes a golf course, luxury residential area, office park and shopping facilities.

The site study and master plan for a 400 acre golf community is located near Chiangmai University campus. It is one of the largest universities in the northern part of Thailand. This development includes a golf course, luxury residential area, office park and shopping facilities.